Annual Index of UCCLJ Articles

Volume 5, Summer 1972—Spring 1973

References are to pages

ADVERTISING AND THE FTC

Consumerism and the Regulation of Advertising, Gerald J. Thain, 384.
FTC Viewpoint, Miles W. Kirkpatrick, 376.
Annual Report on Truth in Lending for the Year 1972, Board of Governors, Federal Reserve System, 353.
Banking in the Consumer Protection Age, William F. Upshaw, 232.
Consumer Protection Influences on Article 9, Carl Felsenfeld and Ira Finkelson, 5.
Consumers in the 1970s, J.L. Robertson, 283.
Drafting Equipment Leases, Owen T. Smith, 64.
The Fate of the Negotiable Stock Certificate—UCC Immobilization or SEC Elimination, Glen Willet Clark, 83.

FEDERAL DEVELOPMENTS IN HOLDER IN DUE COURSE LAW

Holder in Due Course and Bank Cards, Matthew Hale, 164.
Holder in Due Course—The Burden of the Poor, Fred Speaker, 146.
The Necessity of Retaining the Holder in Due Course Doctrine, Charles R. McNeill, 149.
Need for Preservation of Buyers' Defenses—State Statutes Reviewed, William F. Willier, 132.
Timely Demise of Holder in Due Course Doctrine, Fairfax Leary, Jr., 117.
Financing Statements: Errors and Omissions, William C. Hillman, 209.
A Judge's View of Unconscionability, Irving Younger, 348.
Recommendations of the National Commission on Consumer Finance, 319.
Some Problems Confronting a Secretary of State in Connection with the UCC Filing Process, John P. Lomenzo, 228.

TRUTH IN LENDING DEVELOPMENTS

The Work of the Federal Trade Commission in the Areas of Truth in Lending and Fair Credit Reporting, Sheldon Feldman, 173.